In November 2014 Sandra Tepla presents at the Prague's Gallery KusKovu her latest jewellery collection entitled "Entwined" as well as the best of her recent work. Her new collection features statement pieces made in copper, silver, brass and beach glass and was inspired by trees, roots and natural processes. It consists of nine pieces which have sculptural quality and are a special occasion ware.

Sandra says about her work: "I appreciate the beauty of both silver and non-precious materials. My aim is to establish a new form of jewellery that is independent of association with wealth and social status."

The exhibition also offers jewellery from her previous collections The Beauty of Brass (2013) and Made Black (2012).

About the artist:

Sandra Tepla (born 1986 in the Czech Republic ) lives and works in London since 2006. She has shown interest in craft and art in early stages of her life and began making jewellery in her teenage years. She studied in London 2009-2012 at City Lit. Her collections are made using traditional fabrication techniques and are inspired by nature.

About the gallery:

Gallery KusKovu (Piece of Metal) since 2006 has presented objets d'art, sculpture and jewellery made from metal or metal combined with other materials in its permanent collection. Gallery KusKovu introduces art pieces by Czech artist blacksmiths and goldsmiths, both experienced and recent graduates. Its priority is conceptual originality and exceptional craftsmanship. Gallery KusKovu regularly gives exhibitions of artists working with metal and other materials.
